24 MORE FRINGE WORLD SHOWS ON SALE

FRINGE WORLD 2021 will feature more than 500 shows and today 24 more events have been added to the program.

Start your 2021 off right with some comedy like Aiden Jones – Taco at Belgian Beer Café, rated 4.5 stars by The West Australian at last year's Fringe.

The Comedy Hub @ Johnny Fox's also has your chuckles covered with the likes of Brodi Snook – Work in Progress, a tale of dating and the fine line that separates love and the Seventh Circle of Hell. Also at Johnny's is The Phone Hacks Live Shrektacular! Where comedians swap phones, dig through whatever they find and run rampant on each other's socials.

Do you have a broken musical instrument? Don't fret, The Recycle Instrument Project is a Fringe event and an opportunity to infuse new soul into your guitar, violin or whatever instrument you want to pick up again.

Djinda Boodja (Land of the Stars) is a collaboration between Dalkeith Road Church Gospel Choir and the Aboriginal Music Corporation, Djinda Boodja. Continuing the musical theme you can enjoy Reunited - Esfandir Shamir and Kira Gunn play Iranian Folk Music at Lyrics Underground.

Come along and enjoy an array of free activities and performances returning at Southside Summer featuring Acoustic Fridays and Family Fun Saturdays from 15 January to Saturday 13 February.

FESTIVAL 2021

The 2021 FRINGE WORLD Festival is big variety of shows with a predominately WA program of 83% local shows along with 11% from interstate and 6% of shows from international artists whose permanent address is not Australia but who were in the country pre-quarantine.

FRINGE WORLD has made a range of changes to support artists and customers to engage fully in the Festival despite the COVID-19 restrictions. For artists and participants some fees have been waived or deferred until after the Festival, and artists have greater flexibility than ever before to participate. Customers will also have peace of mind that if a show is cancelled or if they have COVID-19 symptoms they can get a refund and the Festival has a comprehensive COVID Safe Plan.
